

Total Control. Tonal Control.

Buy a qualifying IK controller/MIDI interface or bundle and get a FREE IK Virtual Instrument.

Do you want more control over the sounds in your music? If so, IK Multimedia is here to help. From April 7th to April 30th, we've got a great deal that will let you exercise TOTAL CREATIVE CONTROL over your productions and performances. And there's no better way to do that than by using our universal line of ultra-portable MIDI interfaces and controllers alongside our powerful range of Virtual Instruments.

Now, whenever you buy an iRig MIDI 2, iRig Pads, iRig Keys Pro, iRig Keys with Lightning, iRig Keys (or any bundle that includes these accessories) you'll get a FREE download that lets you pick from 4 of our versatile Virtual Instruments. That's quite a deal, especially when you consider that many of our controllers and interfaces come with SampleTank 3 SE, a special edition of the ultimate sound and groove workstation complete with a 6.5 GB sound library (total that all up and you can get up to $/€249.98 worth of products). The instruments on offer include:

- Miroslav Philharmonik - Control the entire Czech Philharmonic Orchestra.
- Sonik Synth 2 - A collection of the most desirable Synths in music.
- SampleMoog - An official anthology of classic retro Moog™ synths.
- SampleTron - A room full of vintage Chamberlins, Mellotrons and their offspring.

That's a whole start up production kit for the price of one controller! Want to take control today? Head to the IK Online Store or any participating IK reseller, pick your controller or interface of choice and then register your product. You can then choose your free download from your IK User Area. Just remember, this opportunity won't last forever, so act now if you want to experience a whole new level of creative control.
